Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Patricia Trumble has contributed greatly to the quality of life in this nation and continent; and,

WHEREAS, During the 1970s, she worked in the State Capitol for the Department of Buildings and Grounds and also helped paint all of the gold in the reception room of the Governor's office; and,

WHEREAS, Although Pat resides in Apopka, Florida, she has contributed to the State of South Dakota through her progeny—Jim, who resides in Pierre with his wife, Sandi, and two sons, Holly Sue and her two sons, and Deborah who resides in Aberdeen with her five children; and,

WHEREAS, Pat's family is holding a reunion in her honor on the occasion of her visit to South Dakota, at the home of her son, Jim, in Pierre; and,

WHEREAS, All of Pat's family members are going to be visiting family in Rapid City, Pierre and Aberdeen;

WHEREAS, Pat is originally from Texas, and though the "eyes of Texas" may be upon her, South Dakota claims her as its own, and designates to her the title of "Honorary Native"; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, for her dedication and devotion to South Dakota, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 1, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I wish Pat and her family a very happy family reunion.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fifth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

SECRETARY OF STATE
